

Today we number many but ride as one, in honor of those not with us, friends, mothers, fathers, sisters, sons. With helmets on tight and heads down low, we ride in silence, cautious and slow the wheels start spinning in the lead pack, but today we ride and we attack. The dark sun passes over our heads remembering those we hold so dear today's ride is to make others aware the road is there for all to share. To those not with us or by our side, may God be your partner on your final ride. Today we number many but ride as one, in honor of those not with us, friends, mothers, fathers, sisters, sons. Ein Tag. Eine Uhrzeit. Weltweit.

Auf der ganzen Welt erinnern Radfahrerinnen und Radfahrer bei dieser stillen Fahrt an ihre im Straßenverkehr verunfallten Mitmenschen, Freundinnen und Freunde, Kolleginnen und Kollegen.

Auch auf Osnabrücks Straßen haben 2014 eine Radfahrerinnen und zwei Radfahrer ihr Leben verloren. Mit dem Ride of Silence wollen wir an sie erinnern und zeigen, dass es den Radverkehr gibt. Für ein sicheres Miteinander im Straßenverkehr.

8 Kilometer um die Osnabrücker Innenstadt.
